

Bruce Bosley
Colorado State University Extension Agent
Cropping Systems & Natural Resources
Logan and Morgan County

Education

B.A., Environmental Biology, University of Colorado, 1972
M.S., Crops Horticulture, Colorado State University, 1983

Professional Experience

Extension Agent/Cropping Systems & Natural Resources: Lower S. Platte 2001-current
CSU Extension Director/Agronomist – Morgan County: 1991-2001
Logan County Extension Agent: 1988 – 1991
Independent Crop Consultant – 1982 through 1987

Professional Interests

Providing research based education on Agricultural Profitability & Sustainability.
1) Program emphasis is developing integrated cropping and livestock/crop integrated farming systems; 2) botany and ecology of High Plains prairies & riparian areas

National, Regional, State, and CSU Service, Organizations, and Offices Held

Morgan County Extension Director
Treasurer, Colorado County Agent's association

Awards, Honors, and Recognitions

Colorado State University Extension - Alton Schofield Award - 2004
County Agents Association – Distinguished Service Award - 2000
County Agents Association – Achievement Award - 1991

Extension/Applied Research Publications (Five Most Significant)

Colorado State Agricultural Experiment Station Technical Report TR05-05:
Northeast Colorado Forage Comparisons

March 2003 – “From the Ground Up Agronomy News – Forages

Total Number of Extension/Applied Research Publications = 3